

This email testifies to the supernatural healing movement of the Holy Spirit our precious women are experiencing - specifically among those women who have suffered the loss of their dear children. Gabrielle is living proof God's tender magnificent love is greater than the deepest grief, with the salve of the Holy Spirit reaching down to fill the deepest loss:

Hi, Lindsey,

I was thinking about you this morning and wanted to send a quick hello. And I wanted to thank you and Cindy for heading to Gabrielle's house prior to her first meeting with the moms who lost their children. It was a beautiful night; the Holy Spirit was so present there. I just keep having chills thinking about it. And from there it just kept going.....what a wonderful week she had after that. Between her and Cindy - God's miracles are magnificent! Not sure if you have talked with Gabrielle or not. But I just wanted to share the text she sent on Thanksgiving. (Glad I am writing this, because I can't say it without crying.)

"For the first time in 3 years I actually have Joy for this Thanksgiving." Can you believe it? How good is our God?!

Thanks again for opening your home and Bible study to us. We are out here in the rowboat of life, where sometimes the water is a bit scary, and sometimes one of us actually gets out of the boat and walks towards Christ!

Happy Advent Season,
Love to you,
Chris
